AggieAir pilot, Dan Robinson, presents at Oshkosh 2017

EAA Oshkosh AirVenture 2017 is the largest airshow in the world, with over a half million people in attendance, over the span of a week. AggieAir pilot, Dan Robinson, joined the USU airfleet and hosted the AggieAir UAV booth. Dan was available to talk about the strong history of UAVs in academia and research and the future of AggieAir's research.
